

VOICED!

Cork Child Friendly City is hosting a FREE webinar

Explore the inclusion of children and youth in civic decision making, ensuring their voices are heard

Hear from national and international experts about including young people in making decisions that affect their lives

Hear from our Youth Panel about their experience with inclusion and what it means to them

Join us online on Monday, November 13th, 4-6 pm

Presented in partnership with Comhairle na nÓg and part of a series of events to mark Children's Day, November 20th

Click here more information and to register

